A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. In stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

BOUGHT HER COFFIN

Anna Scott Makes Arrangements For Her Own Funeral.

THEN SHE COMMITS SUICIDE

On the Pretense that She Is Arranging for the Interment of a Friend Miss Scott Makes Every Preparation for Her Funeral—Plain Coffin Chosen.

New York, Oct. 25.—That Miss Annie E. Scott, the girl who killed herself in Atlantic City, Saturday because of grief over her fiance's sudden death, with careful deliberation arranged for her funeral, even to the point of choosing her coffin, became known yesterday, when a friend of the suicide called at Aldred's undertaking shop. Telling John Aldred, Jr., that she expected a friend to die within two days, she discussed calmly the best method of disposing of her own body, and informed the undertaker that she would notify him when needed. She said that her friends' name was Anna Smith. "She doesn't want to be buried," said Miss Scott, "but has told me she prefers cremation." She asked Alfred how much it would cost to cremate the body and on being told the terms, said they were satisfactory.

"Now I'd like to see a coffin," she said. Alfred led the way to the rear of the shop and showed her several caskets. "A plain one will do," she said, and it was agreed that a pine board coffin with no embellishments would be used. "I'm going away tomorrow," said Miss Scott, "and you'll probably hear from me on Saturday. Now don't forget, I want the body cremated, and I'll see that you get the money." The suicide left a message summoning the undertaker to take charge of the body of "Anna Smith" and a note to a friend in which the money for the services of the undertaker was inclosed.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

It was announced in New York yesterday afternoon that the two magazines, Charities of New York and The Commons of Chicago, have been merged into one publication and will be issued hereafter under the name of Charities and The Commons. The object of the publication of the magazine, in its merged form, will be to continue the work of investigation into the social features of the country.

In an interview in New York yesterday Howard Elliott, President of the Northern Pacific, said that harmony prevails between the Hill and Harriman interests and that there is no friction anywhere.

Yesterday afternoon, in broad daylight, a store in the most frequented district of New York was robbed by five men who held up the proprietor and clerk at the point of pistols. The robbers coolly gathered up all the clothing they wanted and made their escape in the matinee crowds that were just leaving the theaters.

At a meeting held in Dallas, Texas, on November 15th an attempt will be made to organize a policyholders union. The purpose of the organization is to secure for the policyholders a voice in the selection of trustees and directors in the various companies.

The new station of the South Side Elevated Company in Chicago was destroyed by fire yesterday morning.

James F. Barnes, awaiting trial in the county jail at Butte, Mont., for the murder of Patrick Haney is dead as the result of apparently self-imposed starvation. For three days he had refused to touch a morsel of food or drink.

Alfred Decardo walked from San Francisco to New York to see the girl he hoped to marry, but when he found that she had left for Italy a few days before, he attempted suicide by jumping from a bridge. A policeman prevented him from carrying out his intentions.

Barricaded in a room at the top floor of a hotel George Ford defied a sheriff and a posse of ten men, at Alstead, N. H., to arrest him on a charge of attempted murder. Every avenue of escape is closed and an attempt will be made to starve the man into submission.

Ten firemen and five spectators were injured by an explosion of turpentine at a fire that occurred in New York early yesterday morning. The turpentine was stored in a paint manufacturing establishment which was burning.

Argentine capitalists have secured concessions from the Bolivian Government to build a railroad from Santa Cruz to the Paraguay river, a distance of 250 miles. The region to be traversed is of the richest character.

At a meeting of the American Railway Association now in session in Chicago, it was decided to adopt stringent rules next year in regard to the shipment of explosives. Many casualties have occurred in the past through explosives not being properly marked and packed and it is the purpose of the transportation companies to prevent such accidents in the future.

Bruno A. Baehr met a tragic death by falling down an elevator shaft in Chicago yesterday. Either through curiosity or mistake he opened a door to the elevator shaft on the fifteenth floor of the building and then he stepped out into space and fell to the fourth floor, the bottom of the shaft.

FRIGHTENED GREEKS ARE GETTING OUT OF ROSEBURG

Conviction of One of Their Number for Rioting Has Scared the Others—Firearms Found.

Roseburg, Ore., Oct. 25.—Exit the Greeks. The speedy conviction of Antone Mizes, one of the four Greeks charged with rioting at Riddle, has caused an exodus of foreigners employed by the Southern Pacific railroad. An effort was made to have the two gangs of Greeks that were arrested and brought here pending the meeting of the Grand Jury, return to Riddle, but they were so badly frightened at the threats of the people that they refused. Every train going into Portland for the past three or four days has carried frightened Greeks away from Roseburg. When the sheriff's posse rounded up the rioting Greeks a search of the cars was made and a number of guns, rifles and revolvers were found. Some of the weapons showed unmistakable signs of having been recently discharged. A number of weapons were found in the bushes alongside of the track, where they had been thrown on the night of the riot. The penalty which will befall Mizes and the other three who are yet to be tried, in case all are convicted, is from three to 15 years in the penitentiary.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED

Some People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them.

And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

H. B. McCarver of 201 Cherry street, Portland, Oregon, inspector of freight for the Trans-Continental Company, a man who is very well known among the railroaders of the coast, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are among the few proprietary remedies which do all that is claimed for them, and they have my thorough confidence. I used them for backache and other very marked symptoms of kidney trouble which had annoyed me for months. I think a cold was responsible for the whole trouble. It seemed to settle in my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills rooted it out. It is several months since I used them and up to date there has been no recurrence of the trouble. I have recommended them to a number of the boys about the freight house and I know if they gave them a fair trial they certainly must have been pleased with the results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Large Corporation Seeking Terminal Facilities in Astoria.

NOW NEGOTIATING FOR SITE

Portland Firm Sees Advantages of Seaboard Terminals, and May Build Docks and Warehouses Here—Site Near Tongue's Point.

The erection of large docks and warehouses for the handling and exportation of wheats, flours, and other breadstuffs, is contemplated at the mouth of the Columbia river, by a large corporation now conducting a similar line of business in Portland. Options on a desirable tract of waterfront property between Hume's mill and the old Scandinavian cannery, are now held by this company, and it is a part of their plan to erect large warehouses and docks, and handle a large portion of their business from the seaboard. The erection of a large flouring mill, later, is also said to be part of the general scheme.

The property to be used as a site, should the present deal go through, is now owned by a local syndicate, and it is known that negotiations for its purchase have been on with the Portland firm for several days. The price is said to be approximately $200,000, and improvements that will bring the total outlay to the hundred thousand mark, will probably be made.

Charles Stone, who is handling the property for the local syndicate, is of the opinion that the Portland firm means business, and that the majority of their business will be handled from the seaboard direct, instead of from a shipping point a hundred miles inland.

"These men understand," he said in speaking of the matter yesterday, "that it is only a question of time before all grain cargo shipments will be made from Astoria, and they are simply getting in on the ground floor."

"I am not at liberty to give the name of this corporation, but it is capitalized for three million dollars, and is one of the largest on the coast engaged in that particular line of business."

"They realize that our local rail line will soon be taken over by one of the transcontinental systems, with the result that a common-point rate on wheat, will then be maintained. Once this result is achieved, the feasibility of shipping from here, instead of a port a hundred miles inland, with a cumbersome and dangerous channel to ravel, needs no argument to present."

"The site is an ideal one, with all the water that could be desired. Negotiations are now pending, and I am confident they will result in the establishment of an industry that will do much for the up-building of Astoria, and yet prove only a forerunner of more to follow."
